

Self-Designation as a Provider of Free Assistance to an Owner of Residential Property that is Occupied by the Owner as the Owner's Principal Residence

Section 6.16 of the Texas Property Tax Code allows the Chief Appraiser to maintain a list of individuals who will provide free assistance to an owner of residential property that is occupied by the owner as the owner's principal residence. Eligible providers of free assistance are: (1) real estate brokers or sales agents licensed under Chapter 1101, Occupations Code; (2) real estate appraisers licensed or certified under Chapter 1103, Occupations Code; or (3) property tax consultants registered under Chapter 1152, Occupations Code. A person must designate himself or herself as an individual who will provide free assistance by completing a form prescribed by the Chief appraiser and submitting the form to the Chief appraiser.

If you wish to self-designate as a provider, please complete the following items and mail or hand deliver the signed form to the address at the bottom:
